A Long Walk to Water: Based on a True Story

Pier Luigi Ighina Italian free energy researcher. The report stated that nothing essentially new had resulted from the work of the Commission and suggested that a working group of scientists, philosophers and theologian be established to study the more general issue of the relationship between science and theology following the indications given by John Paul II in his letter to the director of the Vatican Observatory in It appears that this decision was based upon a desire to appeal to the wider public rather than to a restricted group of scholars but it, nonetheless, shifted the responsibility from the Commission to the Pope.
