How did a chance Christmas encounter at a Wal-Mart, a love of baking and a girl's desire to serve transform into a thriving discipleship ministry. By Yan Qiu Wang. For, partly, the pressure of outward circumstances is less violent, while man is provided with more ample means for opposing them; partly,

this resistance is no longer possible with the simple Agility which nature bestows on all alike, fit for immediate application; and, in fine, partly a higher and more extended knowledge renders inventions less necessary, and the very increase of learning serves to blunt the edge of discovery. In practice, resisting hegemonic ideals requires energy and a wholehearted effort.
