Philosophies of Nature: The Human Dimension: In Celebration of Erazim Kohák (Boston Studies in the Philosophy and History of Science)

Upon returning to our homes, our initial enthusiasm did not wane; on the contrary, all concerned received the idea of founding a regional network for natural products scientists with joy. People who follow me on Goodreads will know that I hardly ever give a book five stars... How embarrassing then, that I will have to break this tradition already in the first month of my new reading challenge.
